When a student leaves Brillantmont, a final statement is prepared and the balance of the deposit is refunded.

The deposit covers (non-exhaustive list):

Participation in trips organised by the school, the purchase of plane tickets and any other expense of more than CHF 1000.--, such as the October break and Ski Week, are invoiced separately.

C2. Pocket money account

The school distributes pocket money to students weekly. Parents determine the amount they would like to give their child. The school recommends a sum between CHF 30.- and CHF 120.- (in multiples of 10.-) according to the student's age. Parents should send this sum, multiplied by the 35 weeks of the school year (e.g. 3'500 = 35 weeks @ CHF 100), with the first payment of the school fees. No pocket money will be distributed unless the amount is available in the pocket money account, nor if the payment of school invoices is overdue. The remaining balance, if any, will be credited to the student account after the end of the school year, when the final statement is issued.

C3. School books

School books for the courses are provided by the school and are returned at the end of the school year. Those which are not returned in a satisfactory condition will be charged. Books which are bought specifically for the student will be deducted from the personal expenses deposit.

C4. Academic charges

The cost of official external examinations (IGCSE, A Level, IELTS) is charged to the Personal Expenses Deposit. Private lessons, outside the standard academic offer, are charged to the Personal Expenses Deposit and are non-refundable. The cost will vary depending on the number of students in the class.

In case of fewer than three students choosing to study a course, the school reserves the right to remove or cancel it. However, the school may be able to offer the course through private lessons / online provision, at an extra cost.

C5. Health and accident insurance and medical expenses

According to Swiss law, health and accident insurance is compulsory for all students. Families who are resident on Swiss territory and or who benefit from exemption issued by the Swiss government's supervisory body are requested to provide copies of the official certificate upon registration.

The price for the insurance in private division is CHF 2'700.--per year. In case of departure a pro-rata temporis reimbursement will be made for the months not attended.

Students who leave Switzerland definitively in June will receive a reimbursement of CHF 410.-, corresponding to the summer months' costs.
